The SPSS Training Passport

You have made a good decision by choosing predictive analytics software from SPSS Inc. Now the right training will help you gain the most value from your technology investment. Our pre-paid Training Passport makes it easier to provide the people in your organization with the education they need. When you purchase software, you may purchase a Training Passport that can be used within 90 days for a select group of our most popular courses. You don't need to know who will take the course, or where or when the training may be needed. And you'll be able to use the Passport at any SPSS Inc. training location worldwide.

When to purchase a Training Passport

We recommend purchasing a Training Passport when:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>■ The individual purchasing the software is not the same person who will be using the software (i.e. your IT department purchases software that will be used in the marketing department)</li> <li>■ You are not sure which course or training location will best meet the needs of the software user</li> <li>■ Your current budget includes money for training, and you want to ensure that the funds are utilized before the end of the budget period (fiscal year, quarter, etc.)</li> </ul>
